6. Client's Liability for Injury or Death

- Client agrees to assume full responsibility and liability for any injury or death caused to the Dog Trainer or any member of the Dog Trainer's staff by the Client's dog during the course of training or any related activities. This includes, but is not limited to, medical expenses, lost wages, and any other damages incurred as a result of such injury or death.
- Client expressly waives any defense based on the assumption of risk doctrine, which might otherwise limit or negate the Client's liability for injuries or death caused by the Client's dog. The Client acknowledges that this waiver is intended to ensure that the Dog Trainer and their staff are fully protected and compensated for any harm caused by the Client's dog, regardless of any inherent risks associated with dog training.

7. Trainer's Right to Terminate

- Trainer may terminate this Agreement if, in Trainer's sole judgment:
 - Dog is dangerous,
 - Client or Client's visitors interfere with training, or
 - Client breaches this Agreement.
- If termination occurs within the first week, Client will be refunded 80% of the total compensation. All other provisions of this Agreement remain in effect.

8. Disclaimers

- Trainer does not guarantee permanent behavioral changes.
- Trainer does not represent that the Dog will never bite or develop new behavioral problems.
- Trainer does not provide health evaluations and makes no representations regarding the Dog's medical condition.

9. Boilerplate

- This Agreement is binding upon Client, Client's spouse, children, heirs, and assigns.
- This Agreement supersedes all prior oral or written agreements.
- No oral promises are enforceable unless included in writing in this Agreement.
- Amendments must be in writing and signed by both parties.
- Remedies under this Agreement are cumulative.
- If any provision is found invalid, the remainder of the Agreement remains enforceable.
